Washington, March 7 .- The house to-May entered upon the consideration of the eighth of the thirteen regular appropriation bills, that providing for the possal service. It is the largest of the supply bills, carrying over $91,000,000. The controverted items in the bill relate to postoffice inspectors and special mail facilities.

Mr. Dockery (Dem., Mo.) opened the annual fight against the appropriation of $196,600 for special facilities on the trunk lines from New York to New Orleans. Similar appropriations for this pervice have been carried since 1877. The bill also carries $81,000 for special serwice from Kansas City to Newton, Kan-Chicago to Council Bluffs. This com-pensation was, Mr. Dockery declared, in addition to the regular compensation.

In reply to his inquiry Mr. Rossiter Johnson, associate editor of the American Cyclopedia, says the article was written by Mr. Antonio Bachiller Morales, a Cuban who was a decided and partial enemy of Spain and that he presumes that it will be easy to get access to the official reports in the de-partment of state at Washington. I have accepted the advice and in the state department the following answer has been given:

"The minister of the United States to Spain, on August 16, 1872, quotes from the Imperial, described as a semi-official journal at Madrid, of which the colonial minister was director until he entered the present cabinet, the following: From the beginning of hostilities in Cuba, 13,600 insurgents have been kill-ed in battle and 43,500 taken prisoner. The minister adds: 'It is believed that all prisoners of war taken are shot or

garroted.'
"It is plain that the American minister, who was General Sickles, read the item in the paper. The paper, El Im-percial, was owned by a cabinet minister (Senor Gasset y Artime.) General Sickles said in a general way that it was believed that the prisoners were all shot or garroted. Of course that is not true; that simply is a belief, an opinion from the expression of a belief. Topeka, Kan., March 7.-Susan B Anthony passed through Topeka today on her way to California to advocate the cause of woman suffrage. She said she hoped the women of California would profit b ythe experience of the women of Kansas in 1894 and keep party politics out of their campaign. The legislature of California has submitted a constitutional amendment enfranchising women, as the legislature of Kansas did in 1893, and she believes that by good management the political parties can be induced to indorse the proposition in their respective platforms.

In their work among the Democrats the women expect to have the active support of Governor Dudd who is an advocate of woman suffrage. It is not expected that any political party will put out a declaration of principles until after the antional conventions shall have been held, and therefore the women will of taking a photograph through a brick have ample time for a campaign of edu-wall—yet this very thing is being done cation.
